

Places to hangout – Restaurants & Cafés in Prague

Restaurants and bars

Kolkovna Celnice (V Celnici 1031/4) – it is one of the best restaurants in the city for typical Czech meal
Coloseum (Ovocný trh 8, Václavské náměstí 1, Na Poříčí 1042/16, Legerova 64, Nádražní 25) – chain of very good italian resutaurants with many locations around the city

L'Osteria (Budova DRN Národní 135/14) – another very good italian restaurants with the biggest pizza in city

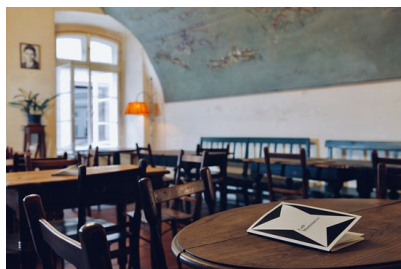

Maritrea (Týnská ulička – not ulice – 6) – upmarket vegetarian restaurant with veggie versions of some Czech classics

Café Montmartre (Řetězová 7) – café in the city centre, where you can get very cheap beer or wine, Kafka used to go to this café

Manifesto Market (Na Florenci, náměstí 14. října 82/16) – outdoor market, where you can get all types of food and only pay by card, there are now two of them in Prague

L'Osteria

Café Montmartre

Manifesto Market

Where to go for a beer

Pilsnerka Národní (Národní 1987/22) – beer place in the city centre where you can get a litre of a beer

Lokál Dlouhááá (Dlouhá 33) – favourite pub for foreigners and locals alike

Dva Kohouti (Sokolovská 81/55) – brewery with amazing beers like APA or IPA where you can sit on its garden, next to that is a place called Bufet, where you can get some „beer food“

U Fleků (V Celnici 1031/4) – Very old czech brewery, which is brewing their own black beer in very special place with medieval atmosphere

Skautský institut (Staroměstské nám. 1/4) – beer place belonging to czech scouts, where you can both study and drink super cheap beer on Old Town square

Skautský Institut

Dva Kohouti

U Fleků

Cafés

Týnská literární kavárna (Týnská 6) – hidden gem, literary café

Supertramp café (Opatovická 160) – very hidden place inside a house, hipster place

SmetanaQ café & Bistro (Smetanovo nám. 334/4) – the best place for breakfast in Prague

Cafedu (Škrétova 490/12) – good place to study or just for a coffee, on Venceslas Square

Kavárna v sedmém nebi (Zborovská 68) – artistic café with lovely beer

Kavárna, co hledá jméno (Stroupežnického 10) – converted industrial space, amazing interior, wonderful coffee and the best egg Benedict in the city

Kavárna Velryba (Opatovická 24) – friendly café with a space called gallery at the back, which can accommodate bigger groups of people

Café Jericho (Opatovická 26) – chill student café/pub mamacoffee (Vodičkova 6, Londýnská 49, Náměstí Jiřího z Poděbrad 12, Jaromírova 576) – artisan café with the best carrot cake in town (and vegetarian meals) – usually quite busy

Café Neustadt (Karlovo náměstí 1) – hipster vibes and good coffee (and sometimes great events and concerts as well)

Crème de la Crème (Národní 23) – place with the best ice cream in Prague

VNITROBLOCK – hipster place with restaurant, café and stores, sometimes there are some exhibitions

Café Letka (Letohradská 44) – very cosy café with breakfast offer and some desserts

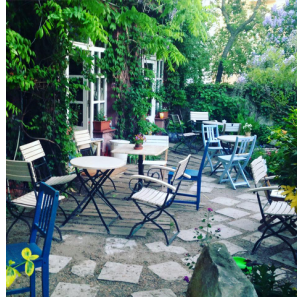

Cukrárna Alchymista (Jana Zajíce 975/7) – café with the nicest little garden ever

Farm Letná (Korunovační 923/17) – insta-friendly place with very tasty meals

La Bohème Café (Sázavská 2031/32) – café with alternative ways of coffee preparation with very nice interior full of books, very suitable for studying

Café Letka

Cukrárna Alchymista

VNITROBLOCK